

Tyne Morgan to Headline Women in Agriculture Conference

The Women in Agriculture Conference committee is pleased to announce that Tyne Morgan will headline the 8th annual Women in Agriculture Conference in Rock Island on Thursday, March 14, 2019. Morgan was named the first female host of U.S. Farm Report in 2014. During her address she will focus on news and policy that is shaping the agriculture industry.

This conference will be at Jumer's Hotel and Casino in Rock Island; registration will begin at 8am and the day will conclude around 4pm. The keynote will be followed by a variety of breakout sessions as well a buffet lunch.

The closing speaker will be Erin Brenneman, Farmer and Farrowing Manager, Brenneman Pork. Raised in the suburbs of Chicago, it was only after Brenneman married and moved to her new family's hog operation that her eyes were opened to what she calls "the beautiful world of farming." She's since become a strong advocate for the industry and for her own family's products. She will present "We mend more fences when we meet in the middle."

Registration and conference details can be completed at womeninagricultureconference.com. The Conference is sponsored by the Farm Bureau Women in Agriculture Conference Committee. Email us at whfb@whfarmbureau.org or call 309-734-9401 with any questions.
