Warren County History Museum to Host Evening Lecture “Tractor Wars” with Neil Dahlstrom”

MONMOUTH, IL- August 1, 2022 — This SEPTEMBER, the WARREN COUNTY HISTORY MUSEUM will host author Neil Dahlstrom will speak on his book "Tractor Wars: John Deere, Henry Ford, International Harvester, and the Birth of Modern Agriculture."

Alana Newman, Pattee Executive Director of the Warren County History Museum says, "We are so excited to have Neil speak at the museum! Warren County has such a rich agricultural history and Neil's talk will undoubtedly shed light on the farm equipment in our collection."

Did you know that before John Deere, Ford, and International Harvester became icons of American business, they were competitors in a forgotten battle for the farm? From 1908-1928, against the backdrop of a world war and economic depression, these brands were engaged in a race to introduce the tractor and revolutionize farming.

“Tractor Wars” with Neil Dahlstrom will take place FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23RD, at 7:00 PM at the WARREN COUNTY HISTORY MUSEUM located at 238 S SUNNY LANE MONMOUTH, IL. For more information, please visit WCHISTORYMUSEUM.COM or contact ALYSSA WHITACRE, at EVENTS@WCHISTORYMUSEUM.COM

About Warren County History Museum

The Warren County Historical Society was founded as a non-profit in 1968 and opened its museum in 1970 in the old Roseville High School. After 38 years in Roseville, the museum moved to its current location in Monmouth in 2009. Over the years, we have collected and preserved items that represent the history of our county and those who have lived here. The tradition of preservation and exhibition continues today as we work to save and document our history and share this knowledge with the public.
